

Lifeline Survivor Benefit

If you are a survivor of domestic violence, sexual assault, or related crimes, Lifeline can help you stay connected.

Save up to $9.25 a month on your phone, internet, or bundled service for up to six months.

The Lifeline program is a federal program that helps lower the monthly cost of your phone or internet service.

What are the program benefits?

You can get a survivor benefit for up to six months:

- Up to $9.25/month on phone, internet, or bundled service
- Up to $34.25/month if you live on qualifying Tribal lands

What do you need to know before applying as a survivor?

- You will need to provide documentation of an attempted line separation request, which you can get from your phone company
- You will be able to select how you want us to reach out to you
- Only a limited group of representatives will have access to your information

How can I qualify?

You can qualify through the survivor-specific criteria:

- If your household income is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (for example, $64,300 for a family of four)
- If you or your child or dependent, are enrolled in one of these government assistance programs:
 - Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)
 - Free and Reduced-Price School Lunch or School Breakfast Program, including enrollment at a Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) school or school district
 - Received a Federal Pell Grant in the current award year

You can also qualify through the standard Lifeline criteria:

- If your household income is at or below 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (for example, $43,403 for a family of four)
- If you, or your child or dependent, are enrolled in one of these government assistance programs:
 - Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
 - Medicaid
 - Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
 - Federal Public Housing Assistance
 - Veterans Pension or Survivors Benefit
- If you live on Tribal lands and you, or your child or dependent, are enrolled in one of these Tribal assistance programs:
 - Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance
 - Head Start (only households meeting the income qualifying standard)
 - Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (Tribal TANF)
 - Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations

How do I get the benefit?

You will need proof that you asked your phone company to separate your mobile phone line from your abuser's. This is called a “line separation request.” The email, text, or letter your phone company sends will be your proof. If you don't have documentation, you can still apply for the standard Lifeline benefit.
